

Mark Q. McLane
Head of Global Diversity, Inclusion and Well-being
M&G plc

Mark McLane a leading expert in social sustainability is the Head of Global Diversity, Inclusion and Well-being for M&G plc, an international savings and investments business responsible for architecting a firmwide strategy that leverages organizational strengths while remaining nimble in the every-changing global economic and geopolitical climate.

Prior to M&G plc, Mr. McLane has held the positions of Chief Diversity Officer Barclays PLC, Director of Diversity and Inclusion for Booz Allen Hamilton, and Chief Diversity Officer for Whirlpool Corporation. In addition, he has an extensive global business background.

Mr. McLane's leadership roles include being a Trustee for the Diana Award, Vice chair DEI executive committee of the International Business and Diplomatic Exchange, Member of the Association of British Insurers DEI board subcommittee, former commissioner for the UK Equalities and Human Rights Commission, and past Master of the Guild of Human Resource Professionals.